

Social and Personal

THE colony at the Hot Springs for the spring season is always a gathering place for fashionable society from all parts of the country, and a great deal of entertaining is being done there this month. Quite a number of Richmond people have cottages at the Hot, which they will occupy later in the season. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Adamson, who have been spending several weeks at the Homestead Hotel, have taken a villa which they will occupy until late in the coming fall.

Mrs. Peter Henderson and Miss Adelaide Henderson are visiting friends in this city, after a month's stay at the Hot. They will go from Richmond to their home in New York, sailing early in June to attend the coronation ceremonies in London.

Miss Lambert Entertained.
Mrs. Miller Hutchins entertained at bridge whist last Thursday morning in her home in Atlanta in honor of Miss Martha Lambert, one of the brides-elect in June. Miss Lambert spent a good part of her life in Richmond, where her parents formerly made their home and her wedding next month will be one of much interest to society in this city.

At Country Clubs.
The clubs around Richmond, as well as other nearby cities, were gay with tea parties last Saturday afternoon, and judging from the number of big motor cars parked outside, the clubhouses, fashionable society was in attendance in unusually large numbers. The Chevy Chase Golf Club was the guest of the Country Club of Virginia on Saturday, and the visitors were entertained very handsomely. A good many summer gowns were in evidence, and all of the tables were set on the wide porches and terraces of the clubhouse.

Some of the noted Saturday were Mrs. Allen Donnan, Mrs. Parrish, Mrs. Malcolm Bruce, Misses Ellen and Sally Hobson, Misses Julia and Archer Joyner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCarthy, Miss Cora Younger, Miss Anne Lomax, of Washington; Miss Gwendolyn Rutherford, Miss Sadie Jeffers, Mrs. Levin

A dispatch from London announces the engagement of Dora, daughter of Earl Harris Dunning, of Stoodley Court, North Devon, to Guy Chalkley, of Virginia.

The engagement is of great interest here, where Mr. Chalkley at one time lived. He is a graduate of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, at which college he was one of the high honor men, and very popular. In the last five years he has lived in South America, where he holds a conspicuous position under the British government as a mining engineer in the Transvaal. His career has in every respect been a most successful one, and the news of his coming home will be received with the greatest interest in this city. He has recently been in this country, and sailed for England last week, after a visit to relatives in Charlotte county.

EVERY SICK LADY IN U. S.

Says Mrs. Wm. Hilliard, of Mountaintown, Ark., Should Take Cardui, the Woman's Tonic.

Mountaintown, Ark.—"After my doctor had done all he could for me," says Mrs. Wm. Hilliard, of this place, "Cardui helped me so much. 'I had suffered from female complaint for six (6) years, but a friend told my husband about your medicine, and I began to take it. 'It is a pleasure to me to write in praise of this wonderful woman's tonic. For it saved my life, brought me relief, and I am now in good health.'"

A tonic, taken in time, would save many a person's life—if a woman, a woman's tonic, Cardui—because it helps the system to ward off the attacks of disease.

It stands to reason that it is harder for any disease to get hold on a strong, well person than on a weak, delicate one.

Some folks look as though you could knock them down with a feather, and disease is a good deal more dangerous than a feather.

So remember, please, that what you should do, if you are not up to the normal standard of womanly health, is: Take Cardui, the woman's tonic.

Consult your druggist. He will tell you how to take it.

Nerves Gone--Heart Weak

Doctors tell us that a vast percentage of the breakdowns and troubles to-day are from overworked, undernourished nerves.

We Americans strain every nerve in our best striving to make a success in life, and do not nourish and feed our nervous system so as to make it equal to the strain; the result is we are broken-down men and women before we are forty years of age. The nerve tissues must be fed and strengthened, the stomach must be assisted in doing the work of digesting the food, the blood must be enriched and circulation quickened, the body and brain must be invigorated, so that we can withstand the strain and retain health, strength and youth.

Here is the experience of Miss Kemp, of Summit, New Jersey, who had a complete nervous breakdown, so that her heart became very weak. Miss Kemp was in a serious condition and was advised to try Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. Not approving of taking whiskey or any alcoholic stimulant, she had done for others, she tried it, and as she expressed it to a friend the other day, "I am indeed thankful and glad that I did," as it has restored her health and made her strong so that she can again resume business.

The young lady says that she received good advice from our Medical Department, to which she wrote and stated her case.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is the only whiskey that was taken by the Government as a medicine during the Spanish-American war.

All druggists, grocers and dealers, or direct, $1.00 a large bottle. Refuse substitutes and imitations, they are injurious. The Duffy Malt Whiskey Co. Rochester, N. Y.

GRAND COUNCIL IS ABOLISHED

Long Awaited Edict Establishes Constitutional Cabinet in China.

Peking, May 8.—The long awaited edict abolishing the Grand Council and substituting a constitutional cabinet of ten members was issued to-day.

The new Anglo-Chinese agreement for the immediate reduction and final extinction of the exportation of Indian opium to China also was signed. The opium agreement between the Chinese and British governments becomes operative immediately. It provides that China shall annually diminish its production of opium proportionately with the Indian export until its extinction in 1917.

Britain agrees that the importation of Indian opium into China shall cease earlier if the native production in that country ceases.

The cabinet, as announced, is made up of the present Grand Councilors, with the addition of Liang Tun Yen, the former president of the Foreign Board, who is now traveling in the United States.

Prince Ching becomes Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Na Tung and Hsu Shih Chang are made Vice Prime Ministers. Liang Tun Yen is named Vice Foreign Minister. Otherwise the presidents of the various boards become the ministers, respectively, of their departments. The change is in line with the demands of the National Assembly for a constitutional cabinet responsible to that body. Instead of to the throne, but who respect the new ministry is made responsible to the assembly has not been promulgated.

DANGEROUSLY WOUNDED BY UNKNOWN ASSAILANT

Delegated to Jr. O. U. A. M. Meeting in Bristol St. White on Street.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Bristol, Va., May 8.—S. O. Denton, a son of J. C. Denton, of Sevierville, Tenn., who came here as a delegate to the annual meeting of the Grand Council, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, of Tennessee, was shot in the evening, while on the street, in company with Robert Fagnas, a railroad man. He was hurried to the hospital. The attending physician was unable to trace the bullet, but will apply the X-ray to-morrow.

The shooting is a mystery, both Denton and Fagnas claiming they know nothing about who fired the shot. The police are investigating.

OLD TIME SAILORS HAVE PASSED AWAY

Crimping House No More, but Conditions Are Far Worse.

New York, May 8.—The old-time sailors who rolled down the streets singing "Blow, My Boys, Blow," has vanished from the New York waterfront, and sailor town, with its cringing houses, is no more. So says the pastors' report, issued to-day, of the New York Port Society. But is the sailors' condition now better than then? The pastor thinks not. He writes:

"The seafaring men to-day do not follow the sea continuously; regular employment is the exception, rather than the rule. Such a condition has necessarily transformed the present-day sailor into an amphibian, adapted alike for service on water or land. Has this brought about an improvement? On the contrary. Twenty years ago, to hear of a sailor arrested, except when on a spree, was rare thing, but now, days it has become common, and why? An analogy may be found in the aborigine who comes in contact with the dark side of a so-called civilization."

"The old-time sailor had little opportunity to become familiar with the happenings on shore. He had a blessing in disguise—the dead line which barred him from the knowledge of the sinful refinements of pleasure. To-day degeneration in a marked degree has taken place among the men who remain."

Seriously Ill in Bristol.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Bristol, Va., May 8.—Ben L. Dulany, in recent years prominent in financial and steamship transportation circles in Washington, the father of Paul Dulany, of Washington, is seriously ill of typhoid here. Dr. McCrae, of Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, has arrived to attend him.

TWO STATE SUITS DROPPED BY COURT

Ancient Litigation Against Former Treasurer Mayo Stricken From Docket.

NO MOTION IN FIVE YEARS

Shortage Reported in 1884 Resulted in Action for Recovery of Money.

The suits of the Commonwealth of Virginia against former State Treasurer Joseph Mayo, Jr., and others, were stricken from the docket of the City Circuit Court yesterday under operation of the five years' law, no motion having been made by either party within that period. The action in taken without prejudice to the right of the State to renew the suit against the heirs and bondsmen of the former Treasurer within twelve months.

The first suit was against Joseph Mayo, Jr., General William Mahone and James M. Taylor, the latter two his bondsmen, and the second suit against all of those parties, and Dr. A. N. Wellford, another surety. All of the parties to the suit are now dead.

The former State Treasurer was charged with having defrauded the sum of $16,559 in 1884, and suit was brought against him, and his bondsmen, General Mahone, Dr. Wellford and Mr. Taylor. The case was never tried, though many efforts were made in the past generations to secure a compromise settlement. Attorney General Williams expressed the view that it would be useless at this late date to proceed against the heirs and assigns of the bondsmen of the former defaulting Treasurer.

No Criminal Prosecution.
The record does not show that there was any criminal prosecution against the defaulting Treasurer, but it was not long after the episode that the State stopped taking personal action, and required its officials to be bonded with some recognized bonding company. Mayo was elected State Treasurer for the term beginning January 1, 1874, giving bond in the sum of $10,000, with General Mahone, Dr. Wellford and Mr. Taylor as bondsmen.

Apparently no action whatever was taken after the discovery of the embezzlement until the Legislature, by joint resolution approved January 23, 1884, instructed F. S. Blair, then Attorney-General, to bring civil action for recovery of the State loss from the Treasurer's General Bondsmen, who had been from the sinking fund, not from the general Treasury, and was accepted by a joint legislative committee appointed to investigate the methods of management of the State sinking fund. The suit was filed by Attorney-General Blair, but either because of political pressure, or for some other reason, it was not pressed.

It has been stated by attorneys who have investigated the case that Mayo could hardly recover its claim under the circumstances, and that the case would have been dismissed from the docket many years ago, had not the judge of the Circuit Court, R. R. Wellford, Jr., been a brother of one of the bondsmen and for that reason unwilling to sit in the case. It was postponed from time to time and never heard on its merits.

GLASS ARRAIGNS PARTY "MACHINE"

Makes Two-Hour Speech Before Northampton Voters at Eastville.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Cape Charles, Va., May 8.—No new departure from the regular line of campaign oratory characterized Congressman Glass's two-hour speech before the Northampton voters at Eastville this afternoon. The Democratic "machine" was scathingly assailed again, and broadsides were poured into Swanson's administration as Governor, even to the present executive, Governor Mann, coming in for his share of criticism. The Congressman indulged again in an indictment of the South Boston News, declaring that it was "obscure" that a paper should become debauched.

The courthouse, in which the address was delivered, was crowded to its full capacity, about 100 being present. The large attendance was partly due to the expected trial of an important case, but the trial was postponed until to-morrow, and the crowd surged into the courtroom to hear the senatorial orator express his disapproval of the Democratic regime in Virginia, and his denunciation of an unfriendly press.

Around the Hotels

Dr. J. D. Buchanan, of Marion, who came so near to defeating Senator A. T. Lincoln in a district which was supposed to be safely Republican four years ago, is in the city. The First Senatorial District gave Henry C. Stuart a majority last November, and the Democrats hope to carry it in November. Many of the Democrats there hope that Dr. Buchanan will again consent to be a candidate.

Dr. A. S. Priddy, superintendent of the State Epileptic Colony, near Lynchburg, was in Richmond yesterday.

TRUCK SHIPMENTS DELAYED.

Cold Weather Makes Season Late—Memorial Day to Be Observed.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Newbern, N. C., May 8.—The continued cold weather has delayed truck in this section very much, and the season will be perhaps three weeks later than usual. So far comparatively little truck has been shipped, this consisting largely of cabbage and peas. Strawberries have been on the local market for ten days, and are retailing at 10c per quart. General farming is much behind, and cotton is just beginning to come through the ground.

A two weeks' session of the Superior Court convened at this place, Judge Garland S. Ferguson, of Waynesville, N. C., presiding. The term is for the trial of civil cases only, and the docket is full to the last minute.

A new city officials are now in charge of municipal affairs. The present board of Aldermen consists of S. B. Ellis, A. H. Barker, W. K. Baxter, A. Gaskins, O. A. Kafer, H. W. Simpson, J. Brinson, F. H. Shriner, I. W. Smith and F. S. McCarthy. They have elected, as indicated by the recent primary, Mayor, C. J. McCarthy; City Clerk, F. T. Patterson; Tax Collector, J. J. Tolson; Chief of Police, C. Lupton. A few changes were made in the minor city offices.

Memorial Day will be observed on May 10, as has been the custom for years. The exercises will be held under the auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy, and Judge G. S. Ferguson, of Waynesville, will be the orator.

The schools will close on June 1, and exercises are now being made for the final examinations.
